Margaret May Damen CFP®, CLU, ChFC, CDFA is a charismatic lecturer, author and trainer. She speaks to women's vision and resolve to make the world a better place through creative use of their time, talent and treasure. She empowers women to discover and embrace their authentic and unique philanthropic legacy of values and virtue.

As Founder and President of The Institute For Women and Wealth, she is passionate in her quest to nurture women to abundantly fulfill their legacy. Her 40-year career in education, financial planning, fund-raising and philanthropic consulting began at Boston University and included 18 years as a Senior Advisor with American Express Financial Advisors.

Audiences around the country have been empowered and inspired to "unlock the wealth within", reconnect with their values, live a purposeful life and leave a meaningful legacy.

"I can't thank you enough for the fantastic presentation of Full Circle: Inspired Lives and Inspired Legacies. I have had fabulous feedback from attendees. It hit the mark and set the stage for more to come."
